sangria Experience

Sangria is the drink of history. Dating back to 200 B.C., the Romans enjoyed drinking red wines from Spain. They began naming the wines and wine-based punches, sangria. More than a century later, sangria would become a popular drink in Europe, specifically that made with French bordeaux as the boozy base. Later, brandy and fruit would be added to the wine to make the punch extra potent and flavorful. In the 1700's, everyone was drinking sangria.
